The real stuff

KELVIN GRIVELL | PRINCIPAL

As Term 3 builds momentum, I'm sure you've already noticed the early stages of our new Early Learning Centre emerging from the ground. In the coming days you'll also see concrete trucks heading down to the Block as they pour footings for our Middle Years Learning Centre. In addition to this, we are preparing for two demountable buildings to arrive, which will accommodate Year 7-12 Dance and Drama, as well as another to support our YMCA-led OSHC service. Finally, we are finalising quotes for the road which will extend from alongside our new oval, to the visitor information bay near the Urimbirra roundabout. By the time 2024 arrives (which it will before we know it!) we will see so many changes at Encounter to support student learning and our community.

Although all of this is wonderful and necessary I write this email preparing to jump on a bus to Adelaide with our Wakakirri performers. Just as I met Year 10-12 students at Adelaide Airport a few weeks ago as they excitedly awaited their ski trip in Queenstown, on the way to Norwood Town Hall there will be lively discussions, anticipation and energy bursting from every person aboard. This is the real stuff!

Even though it is easy to become caught up in the mundane activities of each moment, day or week, extracting yourself to catch a glimpse of what is important, purposeful and relational is what continues to light a fire in my heart.

As you look ahead to the remainder of the term I'm sure each and every student of Encounter has something to be excited about. Performing Arts, school sport, Exhibition, excursions, camps and engaging learning in unexpected places. I encourage you to embrace the preciousness of these moments as you help your kids to remain engaged, joyful and ready to embrace all that is before them.

PS What a joy it was seeing hundreds of Encounter students, staff, parents and community members planting almost 1000 trees on Wednesday. It was a highlight of the year for me and such a wonderful reflection of our shared commitment to the environment and our future. Thanks to all of you for embracing this initiative; I think we've decided it will become an annual celebration.

DEVOTION

It's a good thing we are all different!

KYM KOOP | PERFORMING ARTS COORDINATOR F-6

This was my beautiful and gracious Grandma's response to every comment I ever made about the choices of other people. Especially when talking about my sisters. Good grief, why would they have done that thing or said that thing or made such a ridiculous decision? Instead of jumping on board the whinge-train with me, she would let out a half giggle and stick to the everimpartial "it's a good thing we are all different!". Even as she reached the weightier stages of dementia and struggled with knowing one relative from another, she would catch me beginning to roll my eyes about something and she would say it again. Always with a twinkle in her eye.

When she passed away a couple of years ago, she left a tattoo of those words on my heart.

This year, as I have met and begun to get to know several hundred people in the Encounter community all at once, I appreciate more than ever that no two people are the same. And it's a good thing. While we find it easier as humans to categorise and pigeonhole people and traits, nobody fits neatly into the exact same shaped box as another. Sometimes we might bend ourselves to try to fit but our most authentic self is a shape all its own.

The bad news in this is that humans can't be perfect.

The good news is – in being human, there is no perfect to be.

There is only our unique shape as it changes and grows, learns, reflects, and hopefully supports, celebrates and serves the shapes of others.

From Romans 12:2 (NIV) - "Do not be conformed to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will".

MIDDLE & SENIOR SCHOOL NEWS

Subject Counselling

PENNY MCKENZIE | HEAD OF MIDDLE & SENIOR SCHOOL

This week we begin subject counselling in Middle and Senior School. This as a critical phase in a student's academic journey, where they begin to make important decisions that shape the future of their SACE. At Encounter we see this time as fundamental, partnering with our students and their families to create an individualised and preferred future.

Students should consider how their personal interests align with subjects and their future. There is certainly more motivation to learn when the subject area is already of interest! It is also important to ensure that student's aptitude for certain subjects is nurtured as well, to not only support academic excellence, but to also boost self-confidence and engagement.

Subject counselling goes beyond just academics. At Encounter, the holistic development of each student is paramount. We believe that students who have agency and engagement are well and do well – which then assists them in feeling empowered to make further decisions as they move beyond secondary schooling.

This year, Mrs O'Donnell, Mr Weiss and I are all working together to ensure we meet the needs of the students in our community. Bookings are available for the next three weeks. This week also has further opportunities for students in Middle and Senior School to demonstrate service across a range of areas in the College. Students are serving in the Arts by supporting our Junior School with Wakakkiri and there is also a group demonstrating their commitment to the environment by supporting our National Tree Planting Day. What a blessing it is to be part of an F-12 connected community!

Blessings for your week.

STAFF NEWS

INTRODUCING... Georgia Martin

Hi, my name is Georgia Martin and I'm a Middle/Senior Science and Maths Teacher at Encounter.

What drew you to Encounter Lutheran College?

The extremely supportive working environment and the focus on Wellbeing for the staff as well as the students.

What were your first impressions of Encounter?

Encounter is so immediately welcoming. The staff are so supportive of each other, which allows us to create a positive environment for our students.

What were you doing before coming to Encounter?

Relief Teaching at Encounter and running practicals and tutorials for the first-year anatomy and physiology students at Flinders University.

What do you love most about working at Encounter?

Regardless of what your role is at encounter, relief teacher or contract teacher, you are welcomed and supported just the same. I love to see students being curious, engaged, and having fun.

What do you do for fun or relaxation? Spend time with my friends crafting, gaming, and getting far too emotionally invested in TV shows.

What is your favourite place that you have ever visited?

A few years ago, I spent a week in Rome. I loved the food, obviously, but I especially loved being so close to so much history.

What is your favourite animal? Cats. They're adorable, snuggly, and weird.

What is one fun fact about yourself? At last count, I had over 600 novels on my bookshelves. That was about 6 years ago.

What are some words of wisdom you would like to pass on to our students? Asking for help or admitting you don't know or understand something isn't a weakness. It's the best way to learn.
